

Coffee with the APDIM Council

How to Submit a Winning Workshop

May 19, 2021
4:00-5:00 PM EDT

How to Submit a Winning Workshop

Provide tips for increasing your chances of having your workshop accepted.

Answer your questions about workshop submissions.

How to Submit a Winning Workshop

In the chat: Share at least two (2) emotions you have experienced today.

In the chat: State your role, your program, and why you are here.

Type your questions in the chat.
Send confidential questions to Councilors.

How to Submit a Winning Workshop

Provide tips for increasing your chances of having your workshop accepted.

Dr. Dominique Cosco

- Collaboration
- Deliverables
- Perseverance

How to Submit a Winning Workshop

Collaboration

- How to reach the widest audience
- Think geography, program size, university/community combos

How to Submit a Winning Workshop

Deliverables

- Highest scoring workshops have a “take away”
- Think what you can create to allow a colleague to introduce/implement your workshop topic into their own program
- Toolkit, new eval form, curriculum outline

How to Submit a Winning Workshop

Perseverance

- Many factors go into workshop selection including overall score, diverse representation of programs/speakers, appropriate mix of topics
- Bottom line: Don't be afraid to re-submit!
- Your workshop may be a better fit for a different meeting
- Keep workshop submissions in a word document for easy copy/paste into next meeting's submission form!

How to Submit a Winning Workshop

Answering your questions about workshop submissions.

Type your questions in the chat.

Send confidential questions to Councilors.

How to Submit a Winning Workshop

Collaboration opportunities

- Reach out to friends/colleagues to work together
- Use the listservs to find co-presenters

Upcoming call for submissions

- AAIM week 2022 opens in mid-July

How to Submit a Winning Workshop

In the chat:

What is one thing you'll take away from this CWC?

(Optional) Coffee mug selfie!

